

DEWEY'S CAREER CITED AS EXAMPLE TO NAVY

Secretary Daniels Tells Annapolis Midshipmen to Prepare for Great Crisis.

(By the International News Service.) Annapolis, Md., March 29.—Eyes of the world are upon the American navy today, Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels told a class of 183 midshipmen at the Naval Academy today, in granting them their diplomas, three months ahead of time because of the international crisis. "Prepare for the day that may come," Secretary Daniels said, "when upon your coolness and knowledge and leadership and ability to shoot straight may depend the fate of a decisive naval engagement. We live in tense times. Great issues stir the depths of men. Questions big with the fate of nations, but the world may be decided by you. I do not venture to prophesy what lies before you, but whether your early service is in peace, or whether you are called to an early baptism of fire, there will always be the incentive to high courage and to daring. In every emergency, you ask yourself the question, 'What would Dewey do?'"

WOULD TRAIN ALL

New York, March 29.—The national defense council of the National Guardsmen, in convention here today, adopted a resolution favoring universal military training. An earlier resolution, calling for "federalization" of the National Guard and omitting the word "universal," with respect to training, was downed.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Makes Streaked, Faded or Gray Hair Dark and Youthful at Once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 60 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

Interned Germans Demand Their Beer

(By International News Service.) Atlanta, Ga., March 29.—How more than 400 sailors, interned at Fort McPherson, are to get their daily beer in the bone-dry State of Georgia is a question that perplexed army officers today. The Germans, brought here from Philadelphia, are contained in all respects but this. They continue their drills and "deck work" as if aboard ship, under the eye of United States troops, but clamor for beer. Army officers asked the State Department about it today.

PACIFISTS PROPOSE "PAVEMENT PARADE"

Believe Police Will Permit Them to March on Sidewalks.

The pacifists are to have a "pavement parade" to the Capitol on Monday, they say.

Maj. Pullman yesterday refused members of the Emergency Peace Federation, of New York a permit to have a street parade to the Capitol and they immediately made the wires to New York hot with requests to their headquarters for ideas for a spectacular performance. The bright idea had not arrived late last night.

"The police certainly will not stop a pavement parade," said Miss Elizabeth Freeman, one of the workers. "We have delegations coming in Monday morning of probably 1,000 persons. We will have the delegations march three abreast on the sidewalks to the Capitol, where we will see members of Congress."

Louis P. Lochner, who managed the peace excursion to Europe for Henry Ford, is here representing the peace federation. He and Mr. Ford have not been associated since the latter offered his factory for use in case of war.

The police are rather nervous about any demonstration the pacifists may make on Monday, and it is said to be likely that even their pavement parade will be suppressed.

COMPULSORY TRAINING DEMANDED BY 2,000

Resolutions for Universal Service Adopted at Meeting.

(By the International News Service.) New York, March 29.—Two thousand cheering men and women in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory unanimously adopted tonight resolutions demanding "universal military training and service under federal control for all male citizens of the United States of suitable age." At the recent National Guard convention resolutions were adopted favoring universal training under the Swiss system without any reference being made to federal control.

Herbert L. Satterlie, formerly Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and a member of the Universal Service Committee of the Veterans of the National Guard and Naval Militia of New York, presided at the meeting today. Some criticism by a militia officer of Maj. Gen. O'Ryan, commanding the New York National Guard, caused excitement at the meeting. Another officer defended the local militia commander.

Dispatches from Vienna today, quoting Swiss sources, say that the disturbances at Turin, Milan, Florence and elsewhere were particularly grave. Many persons were hurt in clashes between mobs and the soldiers.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach, or, rather, fermented the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydro-chloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion. Thus everything eaten, sour in the stomach much like garbage, sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach lining, and prevent the stomach from doing its work. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and further, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Adv.

"DON'T INTEND WAR"

and as a result of a revolution, had been involved in dire stress—then it was that the German Emperor on account of his personal relation and friendship urgently advised the Czar no longer to oppose the justified wishes of his nation for reforms.

Friendly With China.

"As to the relations between Germany and China, the chancellor said in his Reichstag speech:

"Our relations with China always have been of the friendliest nature and if these relations now have been actually terminated by the Chinese government, I need not tell you that this was done not by the free resolution of the Chinese government but under pressure from our enemies."

"Also, the financial difficulties which could not be mastered by China during the war played a part in the decision. The object of our enemies is to destroy our trade also in China and to appropriate without labor what has been established there during decades by German efficiency and German industry and business."

"The result of the war—as I confidently hope—will give us a possibility to rebuild it at the expense of our enemies. Then our friendly relations with China will be re-established, provided that China will preserve until then the necessary peace of mind and peace of spirit and egotism of her present protectors."

Text of Speech.

The chancellor said: "Within a few days, the representatives of the American nation will be convened by President Wilson for an extraordinary session of Congress in order to decide upon the peace of Europe between the American and German nations. "Germany never had the slightest intention to attack the United States of America. Nor does it have any such intention now. It never desired to harm the United States of America. Nor does it desire it today."

"More than once we told the United States that we would make unrestricted use of the submarine, unless England would have the right to her policy of blockade, the laws of humanity and international agreements."

"This blockade policy, I expressly recall, has been called illegal and indefensible by a number of states (he used the English words) by President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing."

"Completely Disappointed."

"Our expectations, which we held for eight months, were completely disappointed; England not only did not give up her illegal and indefensible policy of blockade, but uninterruptedly intensified it."

"England, together with her allies, arrogantly rejected the peace offers made by us and our allies and proclaimed aims of war which meant the annihilation of ourselves and our allies."

"Then we took unrestricted submarine warfare into our hands. This we had to do for our own defense. "If the American nation considers this a course for declaring war against the United States, then it has lived in peace for more than 100 years. If by its action it wants to increase the bloodshed, then it is not we that shall have to bear the burden of responsibility for it."

"The German nation, which feels neither hatred nor hostility toward the United States of America, shall also bear and overcome this."

ROMANIAN 'NOBLEMAN' HELD AS TEUTON SPY

Chaufeur of Taxi Tells Police of Actions—Had Military Map.

Chicago, March 29.—A Rumanian "nobleman" was arrested as a German spy here today after completing an extensive tour of the city in which he checked off all public buildings, industrial centers and thoroughfares on military maps. The prisoner was brought here by Milton Wineberg, the chauffeur engaged for the tour, whose suspicions were aroused by undue interest displayed by the distinguished foreigner in Chicago's industrial centers.

By a fake stop for gasoline, Wineberg telephoned the Federal authorities and the alleged spy was arrested just as he was about to board a train for Buffalo. He came from San Francisco.

The prisoner said he was a brother of the crown prince of Rumania. Although Federal authorities would disclose nothing concerning the identity of the mission of the "nobleman," he was learned from other sources that numerous papers and letters, indicating activities in Russia, Japan and America, were found in his effects.

COSTLY PRIZE OFFERED BY MRS. U. S. GRANT, JR.

Will Be Awarded to Best Dog Shown by Member of Army and Navy.

The large number of entries which has been received and the quality of the dogs entered so far for the sixth annual dog show of the Washington Kennel Club, to be held in the Arcadia on the 25th and 26th of April, leads the officials to believe that this year's show will be the most successful ever held by local fanciers.

S. J. Held, chairman of the bench show committee, with headquarters in the Evans Building, announced last night that the entries for the show would close April 9 and that no entries would be entertained after that date.

The local entry list is larger now than ever before at a similar time in advance of the show.

The coming dog show not only will bring together every kind of breed from the tiny Mexican Chihuahuas to the tall and stately Scottish Deerhounds, but also will result in a convention of the most distinguished dog fanciers from all parts of the United States.

ASSERTS WAR'S END WILL BRING BIG BOOM

The end of the war will be a psychological boom; will bring a feeling that the slaughter is over, and financial confidence.

In the future, the prediction made by John Moody, of New York, in a lecture last night before members of the banking and finance class of the Washington chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

"After this boom the country will experience a depression extending over a period of ten or fifteen years," he said.

"After the reconstruction period is over, and the activities created by it abate, wages will decrease, and with high prices, no one will be as well off as before the war. General business will not hold up."

REICHMARKS BANNED AS EXCHANGE MEDIUM

Fear of War Given as Cause for Action.

New York, March 29.—All transactions in foreign exchange between the United States and Germany have been suspended. It is no longer possible, except in the rarest cases, to transfer money from New York to Berlin or vice versa. As far as is known, this is the first time in the financial history of the two countries that this condition has prevailed.

Until today, several of the large institutions in the Wall Street district maintained wireless connections with their correspondents at the German capital. Today only one banking house was willing to transact business in Reichsmark exchange, and this firm would only accommodate a few of its best customers.

The reason most generally advanced for today's suspension is, of course, the fear of a declaration of war in the immediate future. Bankers accepting orders fear that they would be held liable for the ultimate delivery of funds and are unwilling to assume this risk.

It was also reported but not verified that the German government had ordered Berlin banks to refuse to accept foreign bills, especially bills from America.
